Senior High Youth Gathering

John 17:20-21

“I ask not only on behalf of these [disciples], but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me.”

Dear Our Savior’s,

I have been reflecting over the last month on the sorrow of saying goodbye to a pastor here at Our Savior’s.

I know that it was a tough decision for your council and a tough decision of the congregational meeting, even though everyone appeared to be on the same page about this decision financially. It is always tough when the community needs to change it’s staffing, and this was a big decision for you. And for your prayerful discernment and responsible decision-making, let me say that I see how hard that work was and still is. And I am proud of you for entering into it.

This decision to let the Associate Pastor position go was one that clearly needed to be addressed, in order to bring the congregation back to financial health. And yet, when it comes to a Pastor leaving there will always be more to the story. This is about a person, a person who is beloved to you and who has offered her gifts to you over the past three years. Pastor Bobbi is to be honored for all the time and effort she has put into partnering in ministry with you here at Our Saviors.

I also know that when a new pastor or manager in any setting comes into the picture, there will be some staff who are more adaptable than others. It is important for you to know that as I worked with Pastor Bobbi, there was some tension in our working relationship. It is for this reason, and out of respect for Pastor Bobbi and her ministry among you that I was not present for her celebration day on February 23rd.

It is also very important for you to know that this kind of tension is normal. Not only normal, but expected. When a new leader comes into an organization, change is inevitable. It is expected that some of the staff will move on. Some of that is because they are inspired by the change to try something entirely different, and sometimes it is because they realize their gifts won't fit within the new constellation of staff, and sometimes, like this time, it is budgetary. In this way, a lead pastor is no different than any other business manager.

In fact, this is just one small example of how congregations are like family systems. One of the common messages folks shared in the focus groups we completed in February was that OSLC is a "Second Family." So I am sure you understand that families have their good points and their bad ones. Families include complicated relationships and generations—old patterns. The work of leadership in a congregation, like a healthy parent, is to help the people in the congregation function in healthier ways, which includes:

- having their own sense of self as individuals, knowing your God-given gifts and using them
- having differences of opinion and conflict constructively and lovingly
- keeping clear boundaries around who makes which decisions and how and who does which things
- growing in maturity in terms of taking responsibility for one's self and the roles one plays in the family (or refuses to play)

The goal is always to help the family not just get along, but to be real in their relationships and be able to work through any troubles that arise. This is where deep and lasting relationships can develop and endure. And, maybe most importantly, when we develop authentic relationships, we witness to the wider world the unity and love that Jesus speaks of in John 17 (quoted above). For in this witness of a healthy community, we show the world that God's love is powerful, real and can create a community that truly loves and respects one another.

As I hope you already know, I am always more than willing to work through any conflict or concern that anyone has. So if there is anything about this change that you would benefit from talking through, I encourage you to reach out. I cannot share specific personnel information, but I would love to listen and care for you as you do this hard thing and grieve a pastor that you loved.

As we learn together about the ways that organizations work, I want to share with you a reflection wrote by a pastor about his experience: "A church isn't a blank slate and neither is a pastor" Found at this link: <https://thrivingministry.org/a-church-isnt-a-blank-slate-and-neither-is-a-pastor/> Or ask the office for a copy and we can print one for you.

God's peace to you, Children of God, for your Father desires that you might be one.

Pastor Kirsten

Lenten Special!
Adult Education
Sundays, 9:15 am
between services

Dear Our Savior's People,
What do you know "by heart"?
Are there songs you love to bust out in your car? Or sayings you have memorized over time, that you lean on when you need them?
Do you know the Lord's Prayer by heart? Do you know what each line means?

I am writing to invite you to join us for an adult conversation at 9:15 am Sundays this Lent (between 8 & 10:30 worship services). We will study together
"by heart," a series of conversations centered on Luther's Small Catechism and what it means to know God's love by heart. This is a chance to ask your questions about the basics of the faith and how what we believe came to be. A conversation for us to gather as those who are new to the faith, and those who know it deeply.

Of the 8 or so baptisms I have done in my 7 months at OSLC, I have heard people asking to connect with others who are also forming the faith of their children or joining the church newly or new again. Whether you are a new or seasoned Christian, I hope you will consider being here for Sundays in Lent a spiritual practice and opportunity to grow not only your own faith, but the future faith of our children.

If you would like to attend and are in need of childcare, please let me know. I love to arrange childcare! :)

God's Peace,
Pastor Kirsten

Communication Covenant November 19, 2019

In order for us to build healthy, open relationships throughout the congregation and solve any concerns, the Council & Staff have adopted the following communication covenant to encourage equal voice, diversity of opinions, consensus and support for the group decision. In order to accomplish this task, we agree to the following:

- We offer and seek clarity in communication. We will not make assumptions about one another because they can damage our relationships and prevent us from doing God's Work.
- We will be honest and straightforward with each other. We will not manipulate each other.
- We will bring our contributions to the whole group, not burdening individuals with a concern the whole group needs to figure out together.
- To maintain strong relationships in our fellowship, we will go directly to any person with whom we have a concern and speak with them about it in Christian love. (Matthew 18)
  - If someone has a problem with an individual and comes to you instead, encourage them to go to that person.

- If someone consistently will not go to the person they have a concern with, go with them to meet with the person.
- We will respect confidentiality.
  - Reasons to share confidential information include:
    - A person that is going to do physical harm to someone else or themselves.
    - A child has been physically, emotionally or sexually abused.
- So that we might respond, we expect signatures on any written critiques or letters.
- Council meetings are open and welcome for all congregation members to listen.
  - We will utilize executive sessions for discussions that need to be confidential.

Signed by the 2019 Council & Staff.

information can be sent to

Lent GIVING 2020

For OSLC's Lent Giving 2020, we ask you to support the ministry of Kristin Wolford's Ministry Expansion for the Water Center:

The total cost of the Water Center is $145,000. $101,000 has already been raised. The amount needed to complete the center $30,000.

This business will allow the ministry to:

- Sell safe and affordable drinking water to our neighbors and the surrounding community
- Disciple and empower more youth to lead as agents of change in their neighborhoods
- Expand our ministry to reach more children with the Gospel and academic tutoring
- Provide full-time jobs for at least nine people
- Add sustainability to our ministry right here in the Dominican Republic

You can support the Water Center during Lent by:

Wednesday Lenten Meals and Easter Breakfast—please be generous with your free will offerings at these meals.

Coin Bottle—pick up a bottle in the Narthex for your home to collect coins or money when you enjoy your meals.

Noisy Offering in Five Gallon Bottle—in the Sanctuary. Everyone is invited to participate.

By check—write a check payable to “Ramas Vivas” and place it in the offering plate.

Building & Grounds Committee Notes

Changes for the out side of the church are in the plans for the upcoming summer.

At the annual meeting, plans were shown to assist in keeping surface water from getting close to the building. Anyone wanting to use the landscaping rocks in the area being done is invited to check at the church office to be sure they are taking rocks from the correct area before taking away as many of the rock as wanted. The leftover rocks and shrubs will be removed and the church will be wrapped with ground guard. The soil level will be raised against the ground guard and a section of curbing replaced. These plans are set to go when the weather warms and the contractors are able to work.

Another project has arisen from the city's 8th street construction. The city will be installing a drainage tile below the new street curbing. There could be a tee installed at the street that would allow the church to drain surface water into this tile. This seems to be a feasible and cost effective answer to some of the other surface water problems in our parking lot. This issue has been discussed many times in the past. Building and ground committee members are looking at the what, where, and how of this project. Anyone with ideas/suggestions is invited to share your thoughts with building and grounds committee members or join our meeting the first Wednesday of the month at 6:30 p.m. Next meeting March 5th.

Property Map: 3-4 drain basins (sumps) · 2 underground drain pipes from down spouts connect to tile from East entrance (need to cut sidewalk)

Blessings are both giving and receiving. God is the ultimate source of blessing: life, joy, peace, abundance, children, reputation, health etc. All of these create a deeper way into a special relationship with God.

“If you fully obey the Lord your God and carefully follow all his commands I give you today, the Lord your God will set you high above all the nations on earth. 2 All these blessings will come on you and accompany you if you obey the Lord your God.”

—Deuteronomy 28:1-2

“Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial because, having stood the test, that person will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love him. “

—James 1:12

“It is good to praise the Lord and make music to your name, O Most High, 2 proclaiming your love in the morning and your faithfulness at night,”

—Psalm 92:1-2

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23 gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.”

—Galatians 5:22-23

“But blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in him.”

—Jeremiah 17:7

“Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse.”

—Romans 12:14

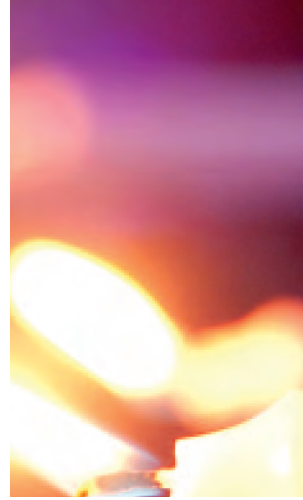

Dear Heavenly Father, I ask that You bless me with the faith to always believe, to affirm the Supreme Power of Your miracles, be they of a physical or spiritual nature glorified. Jesus, my existence is a wonderful miracle and I praise You for it. I open my heart wide to receive the love of God. I realize and accept the healing power of God as love, and I allow the healing power to penetrate my life. God is my limitless and abundant supply made manifest. I feel the outpouring of God's love in my body and mind. I feel God's love in my affairs, and I know all is well. Amen.

“The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you; the Lord turn his face toward you and give you peace.”

—Numbers 6:24-26
